2020 Northwest Buffalo Tour of Gardens

Rules & Guidelines

- 1) Agree to not host or participate in a block sale, street sale, garage sale, estate sale or yard sale during the Northwest Buffalo Tour of Gardens (NWBTOG).
- 2) You commit to have your garden available to patrons during the established day and hours set by the NWBTOG, if you chose to participate in the traditional tour options.
- 3) Please keep all animals confined to a safe area or chained up if outside. This is for the benefit of both the animals and patrons.
- 4) If participating in the Starry Night Garden Tours, you agree to have decorative lighting throughout your garden, as this is the purpose of the event.
- 5) The NWTOG sign will be displayed on your front yard during the day and hours of the NWTOG.
- 6) Please use safety practices during the NWTOG. There are headquarters throughout the tour where refreshments and restrooms are available. You are NOT under any obligations to open your home to anyone. Again, please use safety practices.
- 7) If you will be submitting photographs of your participating garden for a virtual tour please email them to brraconnection@outlook.com and put TOG 2020 in the subject line (limit 10 photos per address);
or mail the photographs to: BRRAlliance, 1902 Niagara Street, Buffalo, NY 14207
Photographs need to arrive no later than July 10 to be included in the virtual tour and will become the property of NWBTOG.
- 8) We are not affiliated with other garden walks or tours.
- 9) You must complete & submit an application to be considered a participant for the virtual or traditional NWBTOG.

By signing this form you agree to the rules and guidelines set forth by the Northwest Buffalo Tour of Gardens Committee and the BRRAlliance.
